Supervisor Greg Cox In the Coming Week

FIGHTING EARLY RELEASE OF PRISONERS

Supervisor Greg Cox will seek support from his colleagues on the Board of Supervisors on a proposal (Item # 1 on board agenda) to oppose the early release of as many as 40,000 convicts from state prisons. The recommendation asks the Board of Supervisors to support and ratify action by the County Sheriff and District Attorney to intervene in a federal lawsuit filed against the state opposing the early release of inmates from California prisons because of overcrowding.

9 a.m. Tuesday, September 18, Board Chambers, County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway.

A NEW HIGHER EDUCATION CENTER FOR SOUTH COUNTY

Supervisor Greg Cox will help open Southwestern College's new Higher Education Center in Otay Mesa. The $25 million, state-of-the-art center will enroll as many as 5,000 students, providing more and better educational opportunities for South County residents. Supervisor Cox will help cut the ribbon for the facility.

11 a.m. Thursday, September 20, 8100 Gigantic Street, Otay Mesa.

HAPPY TRAILS!

Supervisor Greg Cox will help open a new trail head and ranger station at Otay Valley Regional Park. The Beyer Boulevard Local Staging Area will feature a one-mile trail for hikers and bicyclists, a restroom, picnic areas and parking. The project has been eagerly anticipated by nature lovers and others looking to enjoy the great outdoors.

10:30 a.m. Friday, September 21, Southwest corner of 27th Street and Faivre Street, west of Beyer Boulevard in Chula Vista.
